

MILK

Prices Won't be Advanced.

H. G. Goodwin Says Dealers Are Mistaken.

Willing to Fight If Fight Is Wanted.

"The price of milk to be sold by the Akron Pure Milk Co. will not be advanced above six cents a quart," said Manager H. G. Goodwin, Thursday. "The milkmen who believe that we are to advance the price to eight cents are mistaken. They are also mistaken when they say that the Hastings Industrial Co. has any connection with the Akron Pure Milk Co. Moreover, the Hastings Industrial Co. is not a milk company itself, and comes no nearer being so than handling the machinery which we will use. "We want to have an amicable understanding with the milkmen and expect to pay a fair price for routes and equipment. If, when they understand our plans and we give satisfactory proof that we are going to benefit the public, the milkmen want to fight us, we will fight. It will be cheaper for us to acquire our business in that way."

For years I suffered from dyspepsia, at times compelling me to stay in bed and causing me untold agony. I am completely cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In recommending it to friends who suffer from indigestion I always offer to pay for it if it fails. Thus far I have never paid."

"Curse on the day that I neglected to study geometry," cried the honest rustic as he tried to put the new straw hat upon his donkey. "For had I mastered that science I should have found the problem of the ass' ears more simple."

Truly it was but a moment until he discovered that the heels were even a harder problem than the ears.—Baltimore American.
